The following are the terms and conditions of membership of FOSFA Member Superintendents.

a. To abide by the Rules and Regulations of the Federation, as amended from time to time.

b. To be totally independent and not associated with any company, firm or organisation engaged directly in the trade in Federation commodities.

c. To pay an annual subscription on admission to membership and an annual subscription for every year of membership thereafter (such payment to be received by 31 March each year).

d. To be subject to technical visits and/or inspections at the discretion of the Federation.

e. To be in possession of up-to-date copies of FOSFA and other international standards that have a direct relevance to the commodities for which the superintendent is recognised, as referred to in the FOSFA Technical Manual.

f. To be equipped with the correct equipment as laid down in ISO standards and others referred to in the FOSFA Technical Manual.

g. To be in possession of an up-to-date copy of the FOSFA Code of Practice for Member Superintendents, and to comply with it.

h. In the case of membership of the Oils and Fats Section, to be in possession of an up-to-date copy of the FOSFA publication 'Carriage of Oils and Fats'.

i. To conform to national health and safety regulations.

j. To provide a 24 hour service to the trade.

k. To agree NOT to sub-contract superintending duties to any other party other than to a FOSFA International recognised Member Superintendent in the relevant Commodity Section, but only then with the agreement of the Principals.

Note: Superintendents are advised to be in possession of the FOSFA Manual (and subscribe to its Amendment Service), as this publication contains the FOSFA contracts.
