

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP MEMBER SUPERINTENDENTS

The following are the terms and conditions of membership of FOSFA Member Superintendents.

- a. To abide by the Rules and Regulations of the Federation, as amended from time to time.
- b. To be totally independent and not associated with any company, firm or organisation engaged directly in the trade in Federation commodities.
- c. To pay an annual subscription on admission to membership and an annual subscription for every year of membership thereafter (such payment to be received by 31 MARCH each year).
- d. To be subject to technical visits and/or inspections at the discretion of the Federation.
- e. To be in possession of up-to-date copies of FOSFA and other international standards that have a direct relevance to the commodities for which the superintendent is recognised, as referred to in the FOSFA Technical Manual.
- f. To be equipped with the correct equipment as laid down in ISO standards and others referred to in the FOSFA Technical Manual.
- g. To be in possession of an up-to-date copy of the FOSFA Code of Practice for Member Superintendents, and to comply with it.
- h. In the case of membership of the Oils and Fats Section, to be in possession of an up-to-date copy of the FOSFA publication 'Carriage of Oils and Fats'.
- i. To conform to national health and safety regulations.
- j. To provide a 24 hour service to the trade.
- k. To agree NOT to sub-contract superintending duties to any other party other than to a FOSFA International recognised Member Superintendent in the relevant Commodity Section, but only then with the agreement of the Principals.

Note: Superintendents are advised to be in possession of the FOSFA Manual (and subscribe to its Amendment Service), as this publication contains the FOSFA contracts.
